01 / Registration

SNU portal my
SNU

University distinguishes between the new comer freshmen who register for the first time with the already enrolled students.

The 2024 spring semester registration period(enrolled students) is from February 19(Mon.) to February 23(Fri.). The registration period each semester is in February for the spring semester and August for the fall semester. SNU provides a tuition installment system for students who find it challenging to make a lump-sum payment. Tuition is divided into four equal installments, due by May for the spring semester and November for the fall semester.

For incoming undergraduate freshmen, tuition can be paid by printing the tuition invoice from the Office of Admissions homepage(<https://admission.snu.ac.kr>) and completing the payment. The registration period is from February 7(Wed.), 2024, to February 13(Tue.), 2024. Continuing students can check their tuition invoice of payment in the [academic info → registration → notices → tuition notice of payment] menu after logging in to the SNU portal mySNU(<https://my.snu.ac.kr>).

02 / Course Registration

registration program

All students are to use the course registration website (<http://sugang.snu.ac.kr>) to register for the next semester courses before the beginning of the semester. You can access course registration website anywhere, but make sure to be quick since the maximum number of students for each course can fill up very fast right after course registration begins. Courses with times that overlap cannot be registered and generally a maximum of 18 credits can be registered. However, courses like the freshmen seminar can be registered regardless of such registration restrictions. Students with a GPA of 3.3 or higher for the 2 previous semesters can register up to 21 credits, but since this condition is to assess whether the student was diligent academically for the past 2 semesters, if there were repeated courses in the past 2 semesters, both the original and repeated grades are included in the calculation.

Before the course registration period, there is always the preliminary course registration period. When course registration is done during this period, the registration button can be clicked on faster. Also, you can see how many competitors have registered for a course during the preliminary period so this information can be important in coming up with a strategy on the order of courses to click the registration button. If you couldn't register a course you wanted to take, you can try it again by 'Quota exceeding course registration request.' There are 3 steps for this request; request-approval-confirm registration. If you visit SNU CRS(Course Registration System), you can find it under 'course registration' menu. After you submit requests, an instructor or each course's department office will approve or reject your request. Once your request is approved, you should confirm course registration in quota exceeding course registration menu within designated period. Please make sure there is no overlapping courses and you have available credits for course registration before request.

All freshmen register courses in same period. Course registration method is combined with adding courses to course cart and first-come-first-served course registration. Day 1-2 of course registration is shopping period; you can add courses to course cart. On day 3, office of Academic Affairs confirms course cart requests into course registration only if cart requests are no more than course quota. If cart requests exceeds course quota, courses will be designated as "Pending courses" and no one will be registered. On day 4(first-come-first-served course registration day 1), course registration of pending courses are restricted to students who had added courses to course carts. On day 5-6(first-come-first-served course registration day 2-3), all students can register pending courses for remaining quota. Meanwhile, for courses which have not reached their quota, all students can freely register these courses for entire 3 days of first-come-first-served course registration period. If there are vacancies for courses which had reached its quota, "available quota after cancellation" mark will appear. During first-come-first-served course registration period and course change period, available quota after cancellation can be registered only 3 times a day. You can find out detailed time if you press the mark. Make sure to be aware of courses of certain departments and colleges that restrict course registration and read up on the details of courses since some are taught only in English while some are held in a different campus. Note that the year number displayed in the course information is only the recommended year and it does not limit students of other years from registering. Make sure to check the course syllabus and information as well as whether the course can be registered through the pop-up window when clicking the course title or the remarks column in the course search of the course registration website.

When there is no movement for 10 minutes in the course registration website, you are automatically signed out, and abnormal course registration attempts will result in being blocked out for 30 minutes. Since the spring semester of 2012, additional security measures were added to prevent the use of illegal programs. Now you have to input the security text shown before clicking the course registration button and 5 input errors will sign you out automatically.

03 Leave of Absence/Return

Students can apply to take a leave of absence when they want to take time off temporarily or apply for returning to school as the approved leave of absence duration expires. These applications can be made in the [academic information → register change → applications → leave of absence/returning to school/withdrawal/readmission] menu.

Students who have registered* for the semester can apply for leave of absence until two-fourths of the number of school days while students who have not registered can apply until one-fourth of the number of school days. Students paying the tuition in installments can apply for leave of absence when the entirety of the tuition is paid for by two-fourths of the number of school days. Undergraduate students can take leave of absence for a maximum of 6 semesters and pre-med students can for 3 semesters. However, the mandatory period according to the military service law, business start-up(4 semesters max), and recommended leave of absence(4 semesters max) are exempt from the leave of absence duration. A leave of absence duration of 1 year can be applied for with 1 leave of absence application form submission.

04 Credit & Grade

In university, academic terminology and concepts that you may not be familiar with during high school are used. First, credits are the unit that the university uses to calculate the courses taken by a student. Lectures of 15 hours or more over a semester is recognized as 1 credit, and generally, a course is 1~3 credits and a student can enroll in a maximum of 18~21 credits per semester. So, receiving lots of credits would mean that a lot of courses were taken.

ex) I am taking 18 credits this semester.

Also, grades and GPA(grade point average out of a maximum of 4.3) are used to show the academic performance of a student in a course.

ex) My grade in the course was an A+, which is a 4.3 GPA.

* Note, grades are given with alphabet letters while GPA is a scale up to 4.3. Take care to not be confused when filling out paperwork such as scholarship application

05 Course Requirement

SNU requires all students to complete a specific number of credits for different types of courses including general education courses and major courses as well as specific courses. The requirements vary by department, but students must satisfy their department requirements for graduation. Below is the common requirement for all departments. However, some departments may have different requirements than shown here so make sure to check your department requirements.

General education courses : 36 credits or more (based on the lowest requirement)

Major courses : 60 credits or more

– Major courses when studying double major/minor : 39 credits or more(based on the lowest requirement)

130 credits or more for graduation(based on the lowest requirement)

★ Tips for each course type

- Mandatory major : courses offered by the department that are mandatory
- Elective major : courses offered by the department that are optional
- General education : courses that can be taken freely and some general education courses of specific fields may be required
- Teacher training : educational theory and hands-on courses for teaching certification
- General elective : course classification when taking a major course offered by a department other than the department the student is affiliated to and these credits are not counted in the major or general education course requirements.
- Although the classification of a course can be changed through the corresponding department office, such a change is only possible when the request is approved.

06 Major

There are many ways to majoring: single major, double major, interdisciplinary major, minor, interdisciplinary minor, and student designed major. (Student designed major can only be chosen by College of Liberal Studies students. Other students can choose it as a double major.)

The single major is having one major while the double major and interdisciplinary major refer to an independent major that provides a separate convergence program by combining 2 or more departments and majors. Additionally, the double major is the completion of 2 existing majors while the interdisciplinary major is the completion of a new major created by combining 2 departments. Unlike the double major, the minor is the completion of a different major with a lower proportion than the original major of the student. The interdisciplinary minor is the completion of a major established by the expansion of the curriculum by a department with the curriculum of another department. The student designed major is also available where the student composes a curriculum for approval by the president. Application of such majors requires the student to complete at least 2 regular and not the winter and summer

semesters.

semesters* and at least 33 credits. Those who completed two or more regular semesters and obtained more than 33 credits can apply for major in April and October. Each department accepts major applications based on their own criteria. The number of students should be less than twice the number of the junior–year–students (3rd graders) of each department.

Credit requirements	Remarks

※ Refer to the internal department requirements for details

07 / Change of Major

‘Change of major’ refers to leaving the affiliated department and transferring the student register to another department. There are a number of restrictions for changing the major. First, change of major from the College of Education is limited to the departments within the college, and students from other college are restricted from transferring to departments within the College of Education. Also, change of major to the Colleges of Medicine, Nursing, and Veterinary Medicine is not possible. The number of such transferring students is limited to within 20% of the admission capacity of each admissions category. The application period for change of major is at the end of each academic year. Students enrolled at least 4 regular semesters and earned 65 or more credits can apply for ‘Change of major’.

08 Academic Disenrollment

Disenrollment

Removal of the student
name from the register

Students with grades below a certain level can be disenrolled*. Students with GPAs lower than 1.7 or F grades for more than 3 courses or 6 credits are placed under academic probation. Undergraduate students who are placed under academic probation 4 times are subject to disenrollment. To prevent this, the university identifies students who were placed under academic probation 2~3 times and their departments are notified.

09 Online Certificate Issuance

The certificates issued by the university can be applied for and issued(printed) through SNU portal mySNU(<https://my.snu.ac.kr>).

1 Certificates(Korean, English) that can be issued online

Certificate of graduation, certificate of expectant graduation(undergraduate), certificate of degree conferment, certificate of expectant degree conferment(graduate), certificate of year completion, certificate of expectant year completion, certificate of dentistry completion, certificate of completion, certificate of expectant completion, transcript, certificate of current enrollment, certificate of registration, certificate of Scholarship, certificate of Scholarship Non-beneficiaries(Korean), certificate of expectant teaching certification, certificate of law course credit acquisition, certificate of research student, and special student transcript(issuance only allowed during enrollment)

2 Application method

Access the SNU portal mySNU(<https://my.snu.ac.kr>) → academic affairs → get certificates → get online.

3 Advantages of online issuance

Certificates can be issued free of cost anywhere and anytime.

4 Issuance of Other Certificates

(Contact the Division of Educational Affairs : 02-880-5036)

Apply in person at the Division of Educational Affairs, online postal application, FAX application(community service center), application mail(post office)

10 Graduation Simulation(Undergraduate)

Students can check the progress of their graduation requirements regarding mandatory major courses and mandatory general education courses among others to find out which requirements are not satisfied at the SNU portal mySNU(<https://my.snu.ac.kr>) for reference in course registration and planning for graduation.

1 Method

SNU portal mySNU(<https://my.snu.ac.kr>) → academic information → graduation → graduation simulation → start → results

Make sure to print out the simulation result when registering for your 6th or 7th semester and receive guidance from your department.

11 Studying at Domestic/International Universities

Students can study at other domestic universities that have student exchange program agreements with SNU. Students who are eligible must have a total GPA of 2.7 or higher(3.3 or higher for graduate students) and no experience of disciplinary punishment.

If you want to study a regular semester or a winter/summer session at a domestic university, you can apply after checking the notices for each school at the information center - bulletin board - notices(student) at mySNU.

The maximum duration is 4 regular semesters while there is no limitation for winter/summer sessions. When studying at a different university for a regular semester as an exchange student, tuition has to be paid to SNU, but for winter/summer sessions, tuition is paid to the corresponding school. The registered credits for each semester including SNU credits must be within 18 credits while a summer session must be within 9 credits and winter session must be within 6 credits. Credits from other universities are recognized as 1/2 of the credits when counting for the credit requirements. The conditions for international or overseas universities are the same as that for domestic universities. Grades from credit exchange are not counted in the total cumulative GPA but are counted in the credit requirements. For credits to be recognized as major course credits, students must check with their department office before applying for the exchange.

Application for an international university with no student exchange agreement with SNU requires the recommendation of the student's adviser or a special reason.

Scholarships
Student Loans

01 Scholarships

Select the scholarship from the list of applicable scholarships at the SNU portal mySNU(<https://my.snu.ac.kr>) - academic information - scholarship - application/status - scholarship application - applicable list, fill out the application form, click the apply button, and submit the necessary documents after notifying your advisor(contact your department office for more details)

Scholarships are divided largely into internal and external scholarships. Internal scholarships include the tuition waiver scholarship and living expense-academic promotion. The tuition waiver scholarship includes the tailored scholarship given to students with financial difficulty or outstanding academic performance, international student scholarship given to international students with financial difficulty or UN veterans' grandchildren and the statutory waiver scholarship given to people of national merit, their children/grandchildren, and North Korean refugees. Living expense-academic promotion includes the good-hearted talent scholarship that provides monthly funding to students who need support, the overseas study scholarship given to accepted and dispatched exchange students of the 8th income quartile, and the work scholarship given for work in internal and external institutions. S.O.S Scholarship is given to students who face sudden economic difficulty. Scholarship students are selected in every quarter of year and scholarship is either Tuition Waiver scholarship or Living expense-academic promotion. External scholarships are given to students selected according to the establishment purpose or objective of various external scholarship organizations

Among the internal scholarships, tuition related scholarships are given in the form of tuition waivers corresponding to the scholarship amount from the tuition notice of payment. However, the work scholarship and the good-hearted talent scholarship are given to students in the form of monthly deposits into the individual bank accounts of the students

In principle, duplicate payments are prohibited for scholarships, but this duplicate payment restriction does not apply to the work scholarship and good-hearted talent scholarship.(Duplicate work scholarships are not possible) Unregistered students on leave of absence are excluded from scholarship recipient candidacy and previously obtained scholarship qualifications are also lost. However, the qualification to receive a scholarship is maintained when the leave of absence was after being selected for a scholarship and registering

The application period for internal scholarships is November(spring semester) and May(fall semester) and the announcements and recommendations of external scholarships are concentrated in January~February for the spring semester and July~August for the fall semester so make sure to check the Information plaza-Student Notice in mySNU homepage for notices.

1 New Student Merit Scholarship

New freshmen with outstanding entrance scores are rewarded full tuition waivers(2 students for each college).

2 Tailored Scholarship

Tailored scholarship supports students for the tuition partially considering the income, academic performance, and emergency financial situation. Especially, the low income support scholarship is rewarded in connection to the national scholarship(types I and II) while students under 8 supporting section are supported for the entire tuition.

3 International Student Scholarship

The international student scholarship supports the entire tuition for the international students of non-Korean nationality that were admitted through the global talent (foreigner) special admissions selected due to their financial difficulties or UN veterans' grandchildren. International students who wish to apply must submit original family certificate and proof of income documents from their home countries. (Documents issued in a language other than Korean or English must be translated into English or Korean and notarized) UN veterans' grandchildren should submit veterans' certificate of military service.

4 Statutory Waiver Scholarship

The statutory waiver scholarship can be applied for by North Korean refugees and the people of national merit or their children and grandchildren to receive a waiver of the entire tuition. New freshmen students are to visit the Division of Scholarship & Welfare on the 2nd floor of the Administration Building(Bldg. 60) to submit the corresponding documents and receive the waiver applied notice of payment.

5 The Good-hearted Talent Scholarship

The good-hearted talent scholarship provides monthly living expenses of KRW 400,000 to Korean students who need financial support and who got GPA of 2.4 or higher for the previous semester

6 The Overseas Study Scholarship

The overseas study scholarship provides differential support according to the income quartile and dispatched region of low income Korean students(8th income quartile or lower) accepted into admission of international universities among the overseas dispatch exchange students selected by the Office of International Affairs or departments.

7 SNU Hope Scholarship

The SNU hope scholarship includes the good-hearted talent scholarship and the overseas study scholarship. The good-hearted talent scholarship provides monthly living expenses by semester to students with a GPA of 2.4 or higher for the previous semester and requires financial support. The overseas study scholarship provides differential support according to the income quartile and dispatched region of low income students(8th income quartile or lower) accepted into admission of international universities among the overseas dispatch exchange students selected by the Office of International Affairs or departments.

8 Work Scholarship

The work scholarship is composed of the on-campus work scholarship(types 1,2,3) and the national work scholarship(types 4,5). Students who wish to take on on-campus work must apply online through the SNU portal mySNU. Undergraduate students of the 8th household income quartile or lower and with a grade of 70 or higher out of 100 for the previous semester are eligible for the national work scholarship and applications can be done online through the Korea Student Aid Foundation homepage.

9 S.O.S Scholarship

S.O.S Scholarship is given to students who face sudden economic difficulty. Scholarship students are selected in every quarter of year. Only enrolled students can apply Scholarship. Students could find Scholarship notice in Mysnu notice board and find application form. Submit application form with other required documents to School's administration office.

External scholarships involve the selection of students by a scholarship organization, individual, or company to reward the scholarship. Generally, the requirements and conditions are determined by the scholarship organization and students are selected based on such requirements and conditions, but when this is not the case, the university selects out of students with a GPA of 2.7 or higher for the previous semester. The application periods for external scholarships are before the start of each semester, and when students apply for a scholarship using the scholarship selection application document, the departments of the students will carry out the selection process. Refer to the SNU homepage or mySNU homepage(Information Plaza – Student notice) for more information regarding other scholarships.

★ Recipients of internal and external scholarships of SNU are recommended and selected based on the household income quartile of the students. So, new freshmen students must apply for scholarships through the Korea Student Aid Foundation during the national scholarship application period(end of February ~ early March).

LikeSNU(<https://likesnu.snu.ac.kr>) is the service that systematically analyzes the knowledge big data of Seoul National University members, recommends various materials for learning and research activities, and provides education, research, and academic guides. Also, you can explore the library and its surroundings in detail through the SNU Library homepage, under the "VR Tour" (<https://lib.snu.ac.kr/vr>)

1 Usage Method

A. Reading room

Reading rooms are available for studies with borrowed materials and personal literature.

Category	Reading room	Opening hours
Main building	1, 2, 3A, 3B reading room	07:00 ~ 23:00
Kwanjeong building	7A, 7B, 8A, 8B reading room, carrel Study garden	07:00 ~ 23:00

- Main building 1, 2, 3A reading rooms : solely for SNU students(enrolled students, leave of absence students, alumni with a pass)
- Main building 3B reading rooms : open for the public
- Kwanjeong building reading rooms : solely for SNU enrolled students, leave of absence students, and graduated alumni

To use a reading room, you have to reserve a seat at the reading room entrance or make a reservation on the library website or library app. Complete the assignment by scanning your student ID (S-CARD) or mobile student ID (S-CARD) on the seat assignment machine to designate your desired seat. Then, the selected seat can be used for a maximum of 6 hours. To continue using the seat, you can extend the use time 1 hour 30 minute before your use time expires. When leaving, you are expected to return the seat so that other users can use it. You can get penalty unless returning seat.

B. Archive room

To borrow materials, first check the call sign of the material through the university library homepage, find the material among the bookshelves(3,4 floors of the central library main building), and process the material for automatic borrowing using your student ID card(or ID card) at the central library 2nd floor information service center, 2nd floor automatic borrowing machine, or the automatic borrowing machine at the entrance of the 1~7 archive rooms on floors 3 and 4. Undergraduate students can borrow a maximum of 30 books per person. And 25 tablet PCs (20 GalaxyS6 Lite, 3 iPad Air5, 2 iPad mini5, 13 Webcam, 13 Headset) rent service is available.

Materials can be returned using the information service center on the 2nd floor of the central library main building and the automatic return machine(1st floor 24 hours/2nd floor weekdays 09:00~21:00, Saturday and holidays 10:00~17:00, Sunday 13:00~17:00), and the unmanned return box located at the residence halls and college of engineering.

SNU Gwanak
Residence Halls

2. Admission Qualification

People who will be starting university life at SNU Gwanak Campus and enrolled students(undergraduate, graduate) are eligible to enter the residence halls and the following conditions have to be satisfied.

1. Eligible Grades

Category	Undergraduate students	International/overseas Korean students	Graduate students	Research students
Grades	GPA of 2.4 or higher	GPA of undergraduate : 2.3 graduate : 2.7 or higher	—	—

※Graduate students who do not meet the minimum academic requirement can still apply, but their selection will be based on the priority order established by Gwanak Residence Halls.

2. No record of student residence hall disciplinary action(restriction on occupancy eligibility) and eviction due to maladjustment
3. Final findings of medical examination(must include chest X-ray) being normal (contagious disease patients and carriers(tuberculosis, etc.) are restricted)
4. Has a record of receiving a total of 2 measles vaccinations or positive measles antibody test result

3. Admission Application Process

Admission into the Gwanak Residence Halls is conducted once a year in principle. Applications should be submitted online through the SNU portal mySNU (<https://my.snu.ac.kr>). The application period for incoming freshmen is from February 5 (Monday), 2024 at 10:00 AM to February 8 (Thursday), 2024 at 6:00 PM, and the result will be announced on February 13 (Tuesday), 2024 at 11:00AM.

Undergraduates are accepted so that the ratio between the new coming freshmen students and enrolled students is 50:50 while graduate students are accepted without such classification. For admission determination, new coming freshmen are selected wholly by the Gwanak Residence Halls where the applicants are given 60 points for income quartile and 40 points for region. Enrolled student applicants are given 60 points for income quartile, 20 points for region, and 20 points for grades, and 80% of the quota is selected by the Gwanak Residence Halls while 20% is selected by each college. Applicants on the waiting list are accepted based on their order when there is a vacancy. The income quartile criteria is the income quartile given by the Korea Student Aid Foundation so make sure to apply in advance and not be put at a disadvantage.

※ Refer to the Gwanak Residence Halls homepage for more information.

04 The LnL(Living & Learning) Initiative Project

The LnL (Living & Learning) initiative project aims to establish an RC (Residential College) customized for the Seoul National University. Participants are required to accomplish the goals of their own, relevant to personal academic interests and contribution to the community. In the year of 2024, approximately 400 students will be involved and the number of participants will increase every year.

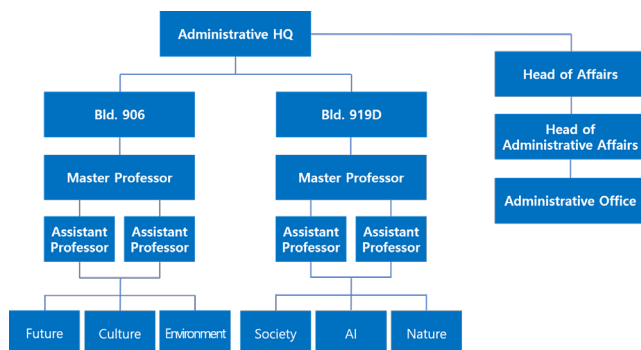

SNU Living & Learning

1. Introduction

Leading universities of the western world had adopted the residential colleges (RC) at the beginning of the last century. The LnL project grafts the Korean university traits onto the basis of pre-existing RC traditions, to offer the most innovative form of education.

2. Organization

Participants will be allocated to one of 21 teams. Each team consists of 20 first-year students, 2 senior undergraduates, and 1 graduate student TA. Teammates live on the same floor of the Gwanak Residence Hall (double bedroom) and accomplish various achievements throughout the year.

※ Team names are tentative. Participants can re-name them later.

3. Application Process

Fist-year Students

Randomly selected 410 applicants (50% each according to biological sex). The region of current residence and major will be concerned for the selection. The application is possible during 2024. 2. 5. (Mon) ~2. 9. (Fri) at the website (<http://dorm.snu.ac.kr>). Gwanak Residence Hall application will automatically be canceled if you get admitted to the LnL program.

Senior Students

56 senior students are recruited to serve as mentors for the first-year students. From November to the following month is the application period.

4. Programs

Curricular Programs

It is obligatory for all participants to enroll 'Gwanak Omnibus Lectures: Community (spring sem, 2 credits S/U)' and 'Peer Group Seminar (fall term 1 credit S/U)'.

Extra-curricular Programs

Monthly one or two extra-curricular programs will be provided. Sports competitions (including e-sports), cooking class, language exchange, etc. are scheduled, and students can participate voluntarily.

Individual Voluntary Programs

If you plan a program you want to do together with fellow students, proper budget and space will be supported.

04 Human Rights Center

Human Rights Center

The Human Rights Center exists to protect the human rights of all SNU members, improve their rights and interests, and cultivate a human rights-friendly campus culture.

1. Counseling, Investigation, and Remedies of Sexual Harassment, Sexual Violence, Human Rights Abuse

Human Rights Center provides consultation and carries out investigations on matters of human rights violations and seeks solutions. One can also receive psychological and legal support with regard to such matters.

1 Counseling What?

- Sexual harassment and sexual violence

Sexual violence including sexual harassment, stalking, dating abuse and rape, forced indecent acts, etc.

- Other human rights violations

Various human rights issues that can occur within the school including discrimination based on race, country of origin, and disability; unfair treatment due to some form of hierarchy; and physical abuse, verbal abuse, and harassment

All members of SNU including students, faculty, and staff can use the Human Rights Center. The Human Rights Center deals with cases even when only one party (i.e. the victim or the accused) is a member of SNU.

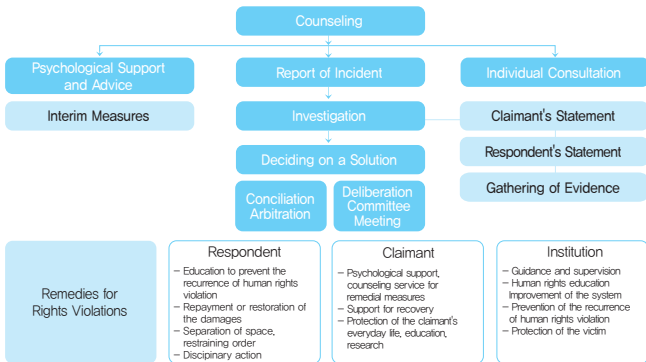

2 Remedies

- Prevention of additional harm (separation of space, restraining order, etc.)
- Support for recovery (psychological support, counseling service for remedial measures, etc.)
- Searching for a solution (arbitration, deliberation, or alternative resolution, etc.)
- Improving the respondent's human rights consciousness and training to prevent recurrence (imposition of education, request of a disciplinary action, etc.)

3 Counseling Methods and Procedures

You can seek a counseling session with one of our advisors by visiting the Center or by phone or e-mail.

- Phone counseling : 02-880-2422~2426
- Email counseling : helpyou@snu.ac.kr (sexual harassment, sexual violence) helpme@snu.ac.kr (human rights abuse)
- In-person counseling : Woojeongwon(Bldg. 153) 3F(reserve through phone and email) Mon.~Fri, 10:00~17:00

2. Human Rights and Gender Equality Education

Efforts are made to prevent human rights abuses including sexual harassment and sexual violence through human rights and gender equality education within the school.

What is abuse prevention education?

It is an obligatory education for preventing sexual harassment, sexual violence, prostitution, and violence within intimate relationships. Everyone should receive at least once a year for an hour.

1 Online human rights and gender equality education

(once a year)

- Access to <http://helpims.snu.ac.kr> → Log in to mySNU → register

2 Offline human rights and gender equality education

— You can also attend one of the Human Rights and Gender Equality Education sessions held by the Center (refer to the announcements in the Human Rights Center homepage)

3. Various Academic–Cultural Programs on Human Rights

In an effort to promote a culture that respects human rights, various academic and cultural programs on human rights are organized.

- Providing opportunities for students who want to volunteer in the field of human rights
The Human Rights Center provides experiential opportunities for students to transform their knowledge into practice by participating in externship programs in various human rights related organizations.
- Human rights week
Every year, the Human Rights Center hosts a Human Rights Festival, in which students can participate, in order to consider the reality of the human rights situations.
- Encouraging students research on human rights
The Human Rights Center encourages students to question themselves and study human rights by holding the Human Rights Research Contest Projects and Postgraduate Students' Human Rights Thesis Award.
- Human rights forums, lectures, and conferences
The Human Rights Center organizes forums, lectures, and academic conferences regarding various subjects in order to expand the horizon of academic discussions on human rights and promote human rights sensitivity.
- A study of the current human rights situation of the university
The Human Rights Center carries out research on the current status of human rights within the university, and makes recommendations for improvement.

4. Ombudsperson

- What is an ombudsperson?

The SNU Ombudsperson exists to ensure the effective resolution of grievances within the university. These grievances can include any issue that results in an inappropriate cultural environment or dispute among university members, such as unfair systems, inadequate rules and regulations, and lack of facilities.

- How will an ombudsperson solve your grievances?

An ombudsperson helps mediate disputes and conflicts that may be difficult to resolve alone or are hard to express to others. You can contact the ombudsperson if you encounter any issue or problem, for example, difficulties due to unreasonable university rules and regulations, or conflict with another member of your lab. The ombudsperson will listen to your concerns and discuss how best to support you, with the aim of enhancing the rights and interests of university members and developing a campus culture that respects human rights.

- How can I file a complaint?

Telephone counseling : 02-880-2007

Email counseling : ombuds@snu.ac.kr

In-person counselling : #413, Woojeongwon (Bldg. 153)

* Please make an appointment in advance by phone.

2. Programs

SNU Majors Fair

The SNU Majors Fair is an event that allows students to better understand and explore their major, as well as learn about the University's various major programs. The SNU Majors Fair consists of a poster session introducing majors and a multi-major conference. Taking part in the event is a great way to gain information about the various multi-major programs on campus and on how to refine your academic plan during your undergraduate studies.

All About My Majors

All About My Majors is an event providing students opportunities to learn about SNU's multi-major programs through the experiences of graduates and students who participated in or who are currently taking part in multi-major programs. We hope the honest and real stories of fellow students and graduates give the participants some insight as they design their own major.

07 / Center for Campus Life & Culture

within the relationship,
(snuocounsel@snu.ac.kr)
(02-880-5501)

When living as an adult after entering university, students can experience various psychological difficulties in all kinds of areas including emotions, personality, personal relationships, career, academics, and romantic relationships. The Center for Campus Life and Culture student counseling center provides psychological counseling services that SNU students can receive when they are experiencing discomfort or psychological pain from such problems. Confidentiality is guaranteed for service users. Consultation specialists with master's and doctoral qualifications provide psychological counseling services including 1:1 counseling, group counseling, psychological testing, and phone and email counseling.

1. Individual Counseling

Counseling is available for any and all kinds of problems that individuals experience including emotional difficulties like depression and anxiety, personality issues, personal relationships, behavioral and habitual problems, sexual and romantic issues, academic, grades, test anxiety, major selection, graduation, and career worries. This can be an opportunity to get a better understanding of one's self and attain the ability to reflect so that you can better control yourself and realize your potential.

2. Group Counseling

When you have worries in your personal relationships or want to improve your image within a relationship, group counseling can provide an opportunity for you to reflect upon yourself within the. Also, heartfelt conversations with peers can provide new perspective and this opportunity can become a stimulus to become closer with other people.

3. Psychological Examination

If you are curious about how you feel recently, your psychological state, your personality, or emotional characteristics, you can take various psychological tests and receive interpretive counseling from specialists. Psychological tests for various aspects are available including emotion, cognition, personality, temperament, aptitude, and career so visit the Center for Campus Life and Culture to choose after listening to each explanation.

4. Psychological Crisis Counseling (SNU Call)

This is a 24 hour psychological counseling call service for SNU constituents (students, faculty, and staff), and this service can be reached by calling (02)880-8080. It's recommended to remember this number in case of an emergency within SNU and to SNU constituents. This line provides immediate help when suicidal crisis counseling is needed and when consulting for others in a crisis is needed. Through this line psychological counseling for your personal concerns is available. In case of an emergency, face-to-face counseling is provided as soon as possible.

5. Capacity Strengthening Program

The Center for Campus Life and Culture not only helps out with psychological difficulties and crises but also holds capacity programs that helps to empower SNU students such as personal relationships and self-control. Mentoring programs that new freshmen students and international students can attend are also prepared so please refer to the Center for Campus Life and Culture homepage and detailed information on p.89.

6. Counseling Request Process

Counseling request and application interview(generally takes 2.5 hours~3 hours)

Fill out a simple counseling request form and carry out a psychological test that measures your stress state followed by an application interview to briefly identify the issues of concern.

Counseling assignment

The counselor is assigned comprehensively considering the psychological test result and application interview. Afterwards, 1:1 counseling with the counselor is provided around once a week for around 12 sessions.

※ Counseling request and application interview reservation can be made through phone(02-880-5501) or visit

Language
Education Institute

Bldg.137-1Bldg.137
02-880-5483~4
<http://lei.snu.ac.kr>

The Language Education Institute(LEI) teaches various languages in addition to English such as Japanese, Chinese, German, French, Spanish, and Russian. Also, Korean is taught for international students. The TEPS and SNULT exams were studied and developed here. The institute plays the same role as the affiliated language school of SNU and course registration can be done during the course registration period through the homepage. Popular lectures fill up quickly so registration can be difficult. The institute provides high quality language education at low cost without having to leave campus.

In the case of English, there are various lectures including conversation, writing composition, ESP, and exam preparation. For conversation, the lectures are in stages from level 1 to level 7 while the writing composition provides specialized lectures in stages starting from writing sentences to essay writing and academic paper writing. Also, certified English language exam preparation lectures are available for exams like TEPS and TOEFL as well as specialized lectures on academic presentation and employment. There are 8 semesters in a year where semesters are 6 weeks or 4 weeks long. Foreign language courses are taught in Korean and various programs are available according to skill level and part.

Course registration can be done at lei.snu.ac.kr and if you wish to take English lectures that require a certain prerequisite, you can submit a certified English language exam score taken within 3 years or take a placement interview to be assigned a class. Meanwhile, TEPS, TEPS-Speaking & Writing, i-TEPS, and the second foreign language aptitude test SNULT(Japanese, Chinese, French, German, Spanish, Russian) can be taken at LEI. Translations from Korean to English and revision of English documents are also provided at a charge.

02 Center for Campus Life & Culture Capacity Development Program

At the Center for Campus Life & Culture, SNU students can receive psychological counseling and testing free of charge. Additionally, there are a range of programs for self-control, personal relationships, organization management capacity developments. These programs not only provide training for the corresponding capacity development but also become opportunities for students to become acquainted with a diverse range of students from different academic years, fields, nations, and ethnic groups. Take advantage of the various programs offered by the Center for Campus Life & Culture introduced below if you wish to have a full university life by meeting lots of new people, know more about yourself, and develop your potential. These programs are popular and highly satisfactory so registration can end quickly.

1. Self-Control Capacity Development Program

1 Academic Management Program

This program teaches and practices academic management methods by discovering your own goals and finding internal resources and making new attempts to achieve them.

2 Health Management Program

This program provides meditation and proper posture training to help reduce tension and stress, empowering individuals to achieve self-recovery and take control of their mental and physical well-being.

3 Emotional Management Program

This program teaches and practices healthy methods of emotional recognition and control for SNU constituents weighed down with emotions that are hard to handle like anger, anxiety, and depression.

2. Personal Relationship Capacity Development Program

1 Personal Relationship Improvement Program

This program helps you adapt to the complex and diverse personal relationships you make in university. This program provides a space for experiment where you can discover patterns that appear repeatedly in one's personal relationship by interacting with group members, understanding the reason behind such patterns, and practicing new communication techniques and behavioral alternatives. The program is a 10 week program with 1~2 related major leaders and around 10 students. Structured and unstructured programs are carried out by categorizing the subject into undergraduate students, graduate students, and international students.

2 SNU-Friend

This program provides an opportunity for critical and rational SNU constituents to develop their capacity for warm and sympathetic relationships by learning about and practicing effective communication techniques and empathetic conversational methods.

3. Campus Mentoring Program: CMP

This is a representative SNU on-campus mentoring program that almost 3,700 students participated in for the past 17 years. 1 enrolled senior mentor student and 1~2 new freshmen mentee students become a team to receive help in academic endeavors such as course registration and preparation but also personal relationships, career, self-management, general advice, encouragement, and support. Mentors and mentees can meet other mentors and mentees of various majors in the group mentoring activity composed of around 30 students and everyone is welcome to participate in the supervision, mentee group discussion, and encompassing events. This program is operated on a semester system where mentees can apply every February~March and June~July and mentors can apply every December~January and June~July. When these periods approach, an announcement will be posted at mySNU and the Center for Campus Life & Culture homepage(<http://snucounsel.snu.ac.kr>). Also, the School-Life Mentoring Program(SMP) is also available that connects new students admitted through the International Admissions I and II/Korean Government Scholarship Program with enrolled mentor students to aid them in getting to know Korean culture. The application period for this program is similar to that of the CMP.

4. Student Mental Health Supporters Program

The Student Mental Health Supporters is a student run project group that plans and organizes projects for the mental health of students. Regular meetings are held once a week during the semester where these meetings involve basic knowledge education and project discussion. All students interested in mental health and project planning are welcome. You can meet good people and create meaningful projects for the healing of SNU students. Participants are recruited before the beginning of each semester and recruitment announcement will be posted on the Student Mental Health Supporters Instagram(@snumentalcare) and SNU email.

03 Seoul National University Social Responsibility

SNU University Social Responsibility

Bldg.153 2F
02-880-2990
<https://snusr.snu.ac.kr>

Seoul National University Social Responsibility (SNUSR) was founded in February 2013 with the core values of social responsibility, innovative professionalism, and continuous collaboration. Since then, the institute runs various programs for social responsibility education and domestic and international social responsibility action as a hub organization for social responsibility within SNU. The institute strives to cultivate good-hearted talent while planning and implementing the follows programs: Volunteer Social Service Courses, Service-Learning Courses, SNU Mentoring, Seoul National University Faculty for Social Responsibility, Student Society for Social Responsibility, SHANUM Intercultural Society for Social Responsibility, Global SNUSR Corps, Local SNUSR Corps, Social Responsibility PLUS+ (Social Responsibility Festival, Social Responsibility Contest), etc. Also, social responsibility related books and exhibitions are available at the social responsibility lobby on the 1st floor of the Woojeongwon. Everyone is welcome to participate in various activities, exchange with students of various backgrounds, and carry out sharing beyond the school campus at SNUSR.

1. Volunteer Social Service (VSS) Courses 1, 2, 3

The Volunteer Social Service (VSS) course was established with the purpose of expanding and reforming the university education from the campus centered education in a limited sense to social structure improvement education. The objective of VSS course is to cultivate a sense of community in the students and have greater interest in their neighbors as well as aid their growth into true leaders that exhibits social responsibility.

You can receive 1 credit for the VSS course by completing 26 hours of community service at a local connected organization and attending the prior education and mid and final evaluations.

Volunteer Social Service Courses 1 : Only students who are taking the community service course for the first time can register

Volunteer Social Service Courses 2 : Only students who took VSS 1 can register

Volunteer Social Service Courses 3 : Only students who took both VSS 1 and 2 can register

Volunteer Social Service Courses activity examples

2. Service-Learning Courses

The Service-Learning courses go beyond the university campus centered education and integrates social responsibility action for the vulnerable classes to major theories in order to provide students with an expanded learning opportunity. Every semester, students taking courses selected as the Service-Learning course utilize their knowledge and technique related to their major to plan and carry out various activities that the local community needs. These activities cultivate a sense of responsibility towards their local community and deeper understanding than their major courses.

Cases of major courses

Design department	Course name	Major activity content
Div. of Public Health	International Health Lab	Identify the menstrual hygiene management conditions of girls in Bangladesh, investigate the influencing factors, and develop an awareness improvement education program for the girls and mothers to actually carry out.
Dept. of Mechanical & Aerospace Engineering	Intelligent Materials and Design	Appropriate technologies are used to develop creative and sustainable product with a low budget for the marginalized classes including developing countries, the elderly, and the disabled, and develop a vaccine delivery device, drinking water transportation equipment, and cooling vest.
Dept. of Design	Design Studio 41	Investigation of the industrial ecosystem and production sites of small producers in the fashion industry in Dongdaemun, Seoul, study the designer collaboration process expected by small scale producers in Changshin-dong, implement the actual collaboration process, and display and promote the results of the collaboration process.

3. SNU Mentoring

SNU Mentoring is an online e-Mentoring program that is based on a dedicated web system(<http://snumentoring.snu.ac.kr>). Mentoring can be done from anywhere in the nation regardless of time and location as long as you have a computer desktop and mobile handy.

SNU Mentoring is a community service activity program that provides psychological and emotional support and information with regard to academics, career, aptitude, daily life, and other worries through online posting and text message conversations where enrolled SNU students and leave of absence students(undergraduate and graduate students) as mentors are matched one-on-one with middle school and high school mentees of the underprivileged throughout the country.

Also, mentees throughout the country are invited to SNU campus once a year through the "SNU Visit" program to provide an opportunity to improve the relationship between the mentors and mentees through offline mentoring. Mentor educations are also held 1~2 times a year to strengthen their role as mentors.

- Recruitment: March
- Activity: April~November mentoring
- Activity benefits: Given volunteer hours of 1365 hours or community service credit link

4. Seoul National University Faculty for Social Responsibility(snufsr)

Seoul National University Faculty for Social Responsibility, previously known as 사회공헌교수협의회[Faculty Members' Council for Social Responsibility], newly began its home at Seoul National University Social Responsibility(SNUSR) in October 2021. Faculty Members' Council for Social Responsibility had been involved in various social responsibility activities while utilizing its members' expertise and rich experiences in diverse sectors, and it is in accordance with the vision at SNUSR.

Faculty Society for Social Responsibility aims to go beyond carrying out social responsibility on campus. Faculty members take the lead in social responsibility activities, set an example for students, and guide them in innovative planning to create social values of sharing, while fostering social responsibility culture at SNU.

Faculty Society for Social Responsibility will continuously develop and bolster social responsibility programs together with students as well as optimize faculty members' expertise and diligently practice social values of sharing on campus.

5. Student Council for Social Responsibility

The Student Society for Social Responsibility is an SNU student run program affiliated under the SNUSR that plans and carries out social responsibility activities. The members directly participate in the overall social responsibility programs including the planning and implementation of the social responsibility activities with the goal of reaching the potential of SNU members creating a social responsibility culture on their own.

The Student Society for Social Responsibility plans various projects each semester with new topics beginning in the fall semester of 2013 and activities are carried out corresponding to the topic throughout the semester in teams.

– Member recruitment twice a year(early March/early September)

Examples of Major Activities

Team	Activities
Board-roun	Interacting and making board-games with children of diverse cultural backgrounds in Korea
Happily-Ever-After	Writing and distributing fairy tale books, where children with disabilities are the main character, together with children with developmental disabilities
Ugli-Culture	Doing various projects for saving agricultural products that had been discarded due to scratch or disfigure
You-Young-Me-Young	Interacting and doing projects with older adults at a community dementia center

6. SHANUM Intercultural Society for Social Responsibility

The SHANUM Intercultural Society for Social Responsibility is a group of SNU members with various nationalities that carries out social responsibility in the local community. International students and domestic students as well as SNU faculty members and SNU employees plan programs together to realize social responsibility activities in various fields. Especially, mentoring for local community neighbors with migrant backgrounds are organized. In 2023, the members planned and participated in various activities such as Dream/Career mentoring with multicultural youth, blogging, and participating in the 'Interculture Festival'.

7. Global SNUSR Corps

Global SNU Corp provides the opportunity for students to contribute in solving various problems that the international community faces. The program is planned and carried out through student involvement(team members) and when dispatched, members participate in the activities with foreign university students. Main activities abroad are mainly in the summer and winter vacations. During the semester, the common education, program planning meetings, and pre-activities are conducted for main activity preparation.

Major activities in dispatched countries

Dispatched country	Dispatch	Activity content
Nepal (Kathmandu)	Twice a year Winter, summer	Physical, music and art education sharing activities, school facility improvement, teacher education seminars and culture sharing activities at Kathmandu, Nepal, an educationally marginalized region
Uzbekistan (Samarkand)	Twice a year Winter, summer	Children-centered education sharing activity in the kindergarten, clinic activity for local residents, and a medical campaign in the Samarkand region of Uzbekistan

Malaysia (Kota Kinabalu)	Once a year Winter	Jointly conducted with the Office of International Affairs, environmental education for children in floating houses, campaign activities targeting tourists, environmental forums, and cultural sharing activities

※ The country of dispatch and the activity contents may change.

8. Local SNUSR Corps

SNU students delve into local issues, and try to ameliorate the situation and implement social responsibility activities (e.g., mentoring the youth in education-deprived areas, diverse activities with adolescents whose family suffered from job loss in shipbuilding industry). In the summer of 2023, participants organized and delivered a disaster response-safety training program to the all students of Juk-Byun Middle School located in Uljin, Kyungbuk Province. Issues of earthquake, tsunami, forest fire, and nuclear power plant-related accidents in Uljin area is covered through games and making Arduino fire alarms.

9. Social Responsibility Academy

In order to propagate the value of social responsibility and cultivate the motivation for social responsibility activities, open lectures are held for SNU constituents on the subject of social responsibility. Lectures by experts in varying fields who are active leaders promoting social responsibility are held from time to time.

Major lectures of the social responsibility academy

Lecturer	Lecture topic
Jang-gil Kim(SNU College of Engineering) Bum-keun Park(Music director) Joo-ok Yoon	Social responsibility talk concert 2: about communion
Joo-ok Yoon (Citizen Group to Protect National Parks)	Coexistence of bears and humans: The life story of those at the Jirisan National Park
Hong Gil Um (Mountaineer, Um Hong Gil Human Foundation Executive Director)	Immortal challenge

10. SHANUM Leaders Club

SHANUM leaders club is a social responsibility membership system provided to SNU members who participate in the local community as well as global community programs at SNUSR. Depending on the participation level, the SHANUM leaders point is accumulated and the SHANUM silver level, SHANUM gold level, and SHANUM black level are rewarded accordingly.

When you have a leaders point of 200 or higher, you are appointed as SHANUM Silver Level and a certificate is issued in the name of the SNUSR Chair, an online nameplate, and SHANUM leaders club souvenir. SNU members with 600 points or higher are appointed as SHANUM Gold Level and an additional award certificate is rewarded in the name of the SNUSR Chair. Lastly, SNU members with 1,000 points or higher are appointed as SHANUM Black Level. A merit plaque is rewarded in the name of the SNUSR Chair and the name of the recipient is added to the SNUSR Hall of Fame.

11. Social Responsibility PLUS+

Every year, the Social Responsibility PLUS+ event is held to spike interest in the social responsibility activities of students and cultivate motivation for participation. The Social Responsibility PLUS+ is composed of the Social Responsibility Festival and Social Responsibility Contest.

1 Social Responsibility Festival

The Social Responsibility Festival is promoted by the students who participated in the SNU SR and the Social Responsibility Festival is a place for sharing and promoting the social responsibility activities through various attractions. The promotion and communication booths of the Student Society for Social Responsibility, which is a student run community service program, and the global group of each country are installed so that visitors can experience various hands-on community service activities and take away new information.

2 Social Responsibility Contest

A contest where students who are interested in social responsibility can propose their ideas is held. This contest provides the opportunity for students to propose their own ideas, share opinions with other students at the same time, and receive feedback from the judge panel composed of experts.

04 Green Leadership Program

Institute for Continuous Functional
Development

The Green Leadership Program is a program for the cultivation of future green leaders who can comprehensively understand the various issues of our society from an environmental and sustainability perspective and resolve those issues through the design of social changes.

This program is a Ministry of Environment joint certification SNU integrated curriculum that was implemented in the undergraduate program in 2011 and is operated by the Research Center for Education of the Institute for Sustainable Development(ISD).

Various green leadership courses were developed for undergraduate students to cultivate the capacity for sustainable development of our society and green leaders with environmental knowledge.

The green leadership certificate is issued in the name of the SNU president when 5 green leadership courses including the mandatory Green Leadership Internship course are completed.

1. Completion Requirements and Method

You have to register for green leadership courses during the semester course registration period and complete 15 credits during the undergraduate years (GPA of at least 3.0) and submit the green leadership completion essay application for a qualification exam along with the green leadership essay(A4 5~6 pages). (Refer to the Green Leadership homepage announcement, qualification exams held in June and December every year)

2. Green Leadership Courses

There are total of 8 core green leadership courses, 6 certificate courses and for the convenience of the students, a total of 65 credit recognized courses are selected from the major elective, major mandatory, and general education courses of each college in addition to the core courses.

The credit recognized courses are listed in the Green Leadership Program homepage(<https://isd.snu.ac.kr/greenleadership>).

3. Green Leadership Internship

Students go on internships to Green Leadership cooperation organizations during the summer and winter vacations as an opportunity for students to apply the knowledge they obtained through the Green Leadership Program to real situations and learn about the actual work of leaders in companies and organizations (90 hours or more during summer and winter sessions, and up to 2 months depending on the organization). This course is for students who have already taken the 2 prerequisite Green Leadership courses, (3 credits given, S/U) The Green Leadership Internship was first held in 2012 with the participation of 5 organizations: SK Hynix, UNESCAP, Climate Change Center, Homeplus, and the Inter-University Semiconductor Research Center. Currently, there are a total of 60 cooperation organizations in the Green Leadership Internship.

Green Leadership Internship cooperation organizations

SK Hynix, Tree Planet, Green Fund, Hankook Research, Glory & Tech Co., ISD Greenhouse Gas & Energy, Korea Environmental Education Center, Gyeonggi Research Institute, Root Energy, WWF-Korea, Hanwha Energy, Green Energy Strategy Institute, Energy transition korea, Solutions for Our Climate, Sudokwon Landfill Site Management Corporation, EnergyX, Xquare, Haezom, Pluglink, The Korean Association for Conservation of Nature, National Institute of Environmental Research, National Institute of Biological Resources, Korea Environment Corporation, KIMST(Korean Institute of Marine Science & Technology Promotion), Netspa

4. Leadership Curriculum Completed Student Impressions

I was very glad that this program existed in our school curriculum and anyone interested could participate. So, completing the Green Leadership Program was more than gaining a personal benefit or qualification, but a goal that I really wanted to achieve and something that I definitely should complete that started out as a passion that began from an interest.

(College of Social Sciences Department of Sociology)

I believe that the era of fossil fuels will end and an era of alternative energy sources will open, so I was determined to study the development of sustainable energy infrastructures offshore where the water and ground meet and I applied for the Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering master's program in the Coastal Environment Laboratory..... The 15 credits of the Green Leadership Program gave me a clear goal awareness and confidence towards becoming a green leader and the program credits gave me the basic knowledge I need to become a green leader. I will not stop my efforts to become a green leader even in graduate school and later on as a member of society.

(College of Engineering Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering)

If the Green Leadership Program could be expanded to more universities, I believe that we who will live the future can become people with a mindset for a sustainable environment and there will be more and more people who consider the environment, resulting in a society where environmental issues can be dealt with.

Biotechnology Animal Science & Biotechnology)

05 Phronesis Nanoome

1. What is the Phronesis Nanoome?

The Phronesis Nanoome is the official volunteer group that was founded in 2006 under the SNU Office of Student Affairs. The group plans and carries out various volunteer activities with the vision of "1 person 1 volunteer for SNU members" and community service activity becoming a part of life. The group ① operates a regular volunteer program during the semester, ② operates a "sharing class" program during vacation, and ③ plans various daily volunteer and sharing culture events to provide SNU students with the opportunity for various experiences.

A representative activity is the "sharing class", which is an education community service for high school students during vacation, "hallabong", an education community service for elementary students during the semester, and "daheen", an education community service for children with developmental disabilities during the semester. Refer to the Naver cafe' <https://cafe.naver.com/snuphroneis> for more information.

Phronesis Nanoome

2. Major Activity : Sharing Class

The sharing class is the most representative activity of the Phronesis Nanoome where SNU students comprise teams to provide mentoring education community service in educationally marginalized regions. The goal is to provide better educational opportunity for students in educationally marginalized regions and instill university education and career motivations. The sharing class is carried out in different schools every vacation.

The sharing class is conducted for 5 nights and 6 days which include ① various study method programs for going to university, ② non-study programs including counseling, interview, and discussion, ③ various career programs to help find a career path, and ④ other programs like sports and recreational activities to create a stronger bond between the volunteer and the students.

06 Community Service Organization Support

The SNU Division of Student Service provides an activity grant at the beginning of every semester so that the volunteer organizations(clubs, etc.) within the school carries out community service activities in the region where SNU is located including Gwanak-gu and Jongno-gu to strengthen the network relationship between the school and the local community as well as increase self-achievement and provide a holistic education.

Volunteer organizations that require the activity grant are to refer to the mySNU(my.snu.ac.kr) student announcements and announcements in the college and department homepages in the spring(early January) and fall(early July) semesters.

※ Procedure : After checking the announcement, complete the grant application and submit to the college or department administration office of the advisor of the volunteer organization → the college or department will then request the Division of Student Service with an official document → the activity grant is provided to the selected organizations at the beginning of each semester → submit a result report to the advisor's college or department administration office by early August(spring semester) or early February(fall semester).

07 / SAM Mentoring

sammentoring@naver.com, 02-880-4485

SAM is the abbreviation for SNU Active Mentoring Program, which is a program that is operated by the SNU College of Education and Gwanak-gu of Seoul. SAM mentoring is a community service activity with the objective of providing a holistic education of heart-to-heart counseling, academic consulting, and vision coaching to teenagers of the marginalized class in Gwanak-gu. Of course, an activity certificate is issued so it is recognized as experience and a small activity fee is given. Moreover, when 40 hours is completed, it is recognized as an educational community service credit.

Activities are carried out for about 3 months which are largely mentor education and mentoring activities. Mentor education involves receiving a 2 hour orientation prior to carrying out the mentoring activities where counseling specialists provide guidance in a program called supervision for a 2 hour session once a month. The mentoring activities involve providing guidance to elementary, middle, and high school students of Gwanak-gu for a 2 hour session twice a week based on the mentor education received. If you want to participate in the SAM mentoring, make sure to check the mySNU announcements and school email usually before the start of the semester(early February, June, August, December) and apply through the SAM mentoring homepage(www.sammentoring.com).

08 Volunteer Management Program(VMP)

The Volunteer Management Program(VMP) was the very first official volunteer activity program for the SNU constituents and this program started in the fall semester of 1997. This program is currently run by the Center for Campus Life & Culture. VMP connects students with the appropriate volunteer activity site reflecting the desired field, activity region, and participation time from consultation with the program participant.

Also, prior education and continuous supervision are conducted regarding the volunteer activity. Through this, volunteers can attain the techniques and knowledge necessary for the volunteer activity. Also, a small group program is operated where the volunteering students create small groups for friendship cultivation. Through the VMP, activity certificates for the connected volunteer activity are issued and these are recorded for storage.

If you're interested in exploring volunteer opportunities offered by the Neighborly Love Program or wish to apply for volunteer activities, you can access information through the KakaoTalk Plus Friend '이웃사랑(봉벤져스)' channel. The '이웃사랑(봉벤져스)' channel regularly updates volunteer opportunities aligned with the program, and you can inquire about and sign up for volunteer work via KakaoTalk chat. If you find it difficult to use the KakaoTalk Plus Friend channel, please contact us at snuebon@snu.ac.kr.

Afterwards, organization matching is made through phone and visitation consultation and the actual volunteer activity can begin.

09 Other Community Service Activities

If you check the mySNU announcements frequently enough, you will see recruitment posts for volunteer activities and educational activities outside the school. While these activities have more stricter conditions for participation than the activities organized by the school, such activities have the advantage of being more diverse or giving higher compensation. You who have been admitted to SNU most likely will not have difficulty meeting the requirements of these activities. Seeking out activities outside of campus all depends on your eagerness.

10 Peer Tutoring Program

Peer Tutoring Program is a program of the Faculty of Liberal Education to help undergraduate students teach each other and learn from each other. Outstanding seniors will be tutors to help and guide the tutees to complete the general education courses well and adapt to the school. Also, you the tutees can share your various experiences and cultural knowledge with the seniors to gain colleagues or peers to be with you throughout your university life.

If you are selected as a tutee, you will meet a tutor for 2 hours or more for 1~2 times a week over a semester(March~June, September~December) to get personalized academic help to match the progress of the general education courses you are taking. Through the regular meeting with the tutor, you can establish a fellow student relationship and receive advice on having a successful university life. Any undergraduate student who needs personalized academic support in general education courses can apply to be a tutee.

You can apply to be a tutee or tutor in (mySnu → Campus Life → Tutoring). You can check the details in the Faculty of Liberal Education homepage(<https://liberaledu.snu.ac.kr/>). Contact the Administration Office (02-880-5447, peertutoring@snu.ac.kr) for more information.

02 SNU Portal mySNU

portal
mySNU

MySNU(my.snu.ac.kr) is the SNU portal website.

Academic services including scholarship application, viewing grades, leave of absence and return applications, and additional post(private tutor, etc.) and various information services like email, eTL, and bulletin board announcement viewing are possible.

1. SNU_ID(Seoul National University Integrated Account)

You can create an SNU_ID on the MySNU website (my.snu.ac.kr) by clicking on 'join' located in the upper right corner. New freshmen students can register an SNU_ID after being given a student ID number. This SNU_ID is used as the ID for mySNU as well as email, school information system, library, and college homepages. So, it can be considered the integrated ID for almost all school related information systems. Also, the mySNU ID is used to verify yourself as a SNU constituent in SNU related websites.

2. Academic Information

The academic information provides various academic related services like scholarship application, course viewing, grades viewing, leave of absence and return application, and certificate issuance. Especially, if you add your phone number and configure your setting to receive SMS alerts in the my info-general information-modify personal information, you can receive academic administration information from the school right away. You can receive test and lecture cancellation announcements for the courses you are taking through this SMS service so registering your phone number and configuring the setting to receive SMS alerts can be quite convenient.

3. Webmail

Once you create a SNU_ID, an educational cloud mail(Gmail) in the form of SNU_ID@snu.ac.kr will be generated. You can access Gmail through mySNU. All announcements related to SNU will be sent to SNU email address only(~@snu.ac.kr).

4. Information Center

In the information center, you can access information related menus on the FAQ, bulletin board, SNU events, and community.

5. SNU Member Support

In the SNU member support menu there are major services including IT service, S-CARD, Open S&U, Reserve Room, Repairs Center and etc. The IT service menu includes network related menus such as laptop/SW rental, wireless LAN(wifi) usage method, and IP/domain application.

03 eTL

1. eTL Use

The SNU eTL(etl.snu.ac.kr) system is an online learning network developed to support the various academic activities for students at SNU.

At eTL, you can see the list of courses that you registered for or the courses that you have already taken. Since off-class interaction between the instructor and the students are made possible, effective course participation is facilitated. Especially, as notification on assignments, tests, lecture cancellations, etc., are announced on eTL, it is recommended to periodically check eTL's notices and other bulletin boards during the semester. Also we encourage you to download the app "Learning X Student" which sends you real-time SMS and push notification whenever there is a newly created assignment, announcement posts, and etc. Further, you can also watch online lectures taught by distinguished faculties of the campus at the SNUON menu, which is available exclusively for the members of SNU.

e-Teaching &
Learning

2. eTL Usage Method

There are two ways to access to eTL: Either 1) go to SNU portal (<https://my.snu.ac.kr>), log in with your SNU_ID, and click on the eTL menu on the homepage, or 2) directly access to the eTL homepage (<https://etl.snu.ac.kr>). You can also access eTL from the mobile device using the app "Learning X Student" developed for both Android and iOS environments.

04 Wi-Fi Guide

Seoul National University's wireless LAN is 'eduroam,' and it can be accessed using the email address issued along with the SNU_ID.

In addition, each telecommunications company (LG Uplus/SKT/KT) provides free wireless internet access for campus members. The access method can be confirmed through 'snu_guest' when connecting to the wireless LAN, and there is also a convenient connection option available for visitors.

– eduroam

ID: SNU_ID@snu.ac.kr / pw: SNU_ID password

– Wireless LAN provided by telecommunication companies (available to anyone without restrictions)

05 SNUGenie

SNU Genie(snugenie@snu.ac.kr) is an artificial intelligence-based course and extracurricular program recommendation search service.

SNUGenie provides comprehensive academic progress tracking to support successful university life. It offers search services for courses, extracurricular programs, majors, professors, and personalized course recommendations.

– How to access:

- 1) Access the URL for SNUGenie(snugenie@snu.ac.kr)
- 2) Access SNUGenie through the shortcut icon on portal(mysnu.ac.kr)

06 Other Online Services and Official SNS Accounts

1. Central Library Homepage

At the Central Library homepage(<https://library.snu.ac.kr>), you can search for books and non-book materials as well as academic papers published in journals available in the Central Library, branch libraries, and college archives

Also, you can extend the return date of borrowed books, reserve already borrowed books, and reserve group study rooms. Other services are available including requesting materials from other university libraries, original text copying, and application of workshops held by the library.

2. SNU Related Apps

1 Official SNU App[mySNU]

Provides useful services such as academic calendar, schedule, grades, scholarship application, eTL, email, mobile student ID card, menu, push notifications

2 eTL

Various academic activities are supported regarding course' announcements, course materials, Q&A, and discussions

3 Univercity Library Reading Room and Group Study Room Reservation Application

SNU Walk

실천하자! 스누르(SNU-RO)를 즐기는 다양한 방법

※ 스누로(SNU-Ro)는 우리학교 동래캠퍼스인 스누모두로(S), 스누사이로(N), 스누하나로(U)를 통칭하는 이름입니다.
총 31개 코스로 된 스누로로를 따라 걸어보면 몸도 마음도 건강할 서울대 구성원이 될 수 있습니다.

스누31 1달 동안 모든 스누로를 모두 견습니다.

스노365 1년 동안 각자 마음에 드는 스누로를 선택해 꾸준히 걸습니다.

스누1530 1주일에 5일 이상 하루 30분씩 스누로를 걷습니다

스누10000 1만보를 목표로 스누로를 걷습니다.
S0코스(5km)를 2회 반복하면 목표치를 달성할 수 있습니다.

07 SNU Greenhouse Gas—Energy Status

SNU is a high energy consumption institution. It was ranked No.1 in energy consumption for all Seoul buildings for 10 years consecutively and SNU consumes at least double that of other universities in Seoul. The greenhouse gas emissions through energy consumption are also on a steady rise. The voluntary conservation efforts of new freshmen students are evermore necessary.

1 Greenhouse Gas Emissions by Campus

Increased greenhouse gas emissions over the past 10 years have increased by 22.7% due to increased new buildings and research activities.

2 SNU Greenhouse Gas Emission Scale

Energy, greenhouse gases, and ultrafine particles(PM 2.5) have an intricate relationship. The '22 energy consumption(total institution including Gwanak, Yeongeon, Pyeongchang) of SNU is approximately 71,200 TOE(energy converted tons) and the corresponding carbon dioxide emissions is about 144,448t-CO₂(carbon dioxide converted tons). During the production of this much energy, approximately 36,000kg of ultrafine particles are produced annually.

3 Introduction to the SNU Eco-Friendly Student Activities

- Target: Group of students interested in eco-friendly activities (4 or more students)
- Amount of Support: Within 1 million won per group (by evaluation of activity plan)
- When: twice a year (at the beginning of semester)
- Contact: co2co2@snu.ac.kr

〈 Examples of eco-friendly student activities 〉 eco-friendly campus campaigns, energy-saving activities in buildings, eco-friendly volunteer activities linked to the community, holding eco-friendly seminars, waste reduction campaigns, eco-friendly education and research, online platform operations for student participation, etc
